

Easter in the idyllic Bavarian Forest

A short horse-riding break over Easter in the idyllic Bavarian Forest

I went horse riding in the Bavarian Forest over Easter. My boyfriend is a beginner, so we booked the 4-day taster course for beginners. The horses are incredibly well-behaved. Mirko was absolutely thrilled with 'his Dalía'... On the beginners' programme, there's just a quick briefing in the arena and then you're off into the... countryside. We started off at a walk, but by the second day we'd even managed a short gallop! The accommodation is basic (and accordingly affordable!), the area is lovely, and the riding programme is ideal for all beginners who want to get a quick and easy taste of the world of horses.

More experienced riders will get their money's worth with the adventure riding week, which includes a day's ride to Pullman City. Sybille

For information and bookings, visit

<http://www.reiterreisen.com/bersta.htm>

